FROM THE EDITOR

Implement First - Then Perfect

It was a summer of '08 when I was given one of the best advices an 8 year old can be given: "Implement First - Then Perfect". The words came from my grandpa' while I was trying to combine two of my bicycles together into one. I do believe, however, that he was talking about perfecting his newly acquired wig that was covering not just his bald spot, but a half of his face.

Either way, these words of wisdom can be applied to so many situations, whether it's building a tricycle or running a magazine. The very first time I had sex, it was with a much older and more experienced girl. I almost backed out, but my grandpa's words echoing through my head made me realize it was time to stop perfecting it all by myself and implement first.

Having that in mind, we have decided that our new plan to add more content to Xcitement magazine will take an unconventional approach. We skipped the research and the questionnaires and engaged some very creative writers with fresh ideas instead. Rather than being strict with our vision and demanding that they meet the criteria, we let them submit their own ideas and we are taking it upon ourselves to perfect them. There are several new columns in this issue and I honestly can't wait to see how they turn out in the future. You will see more of this in the months to come.

We would also like to welcome you to our new website. Go to XcitementAtlanta.com to see the content online. Sign up to see more photos and what's happening behind the scenes. Who knows, you may even find some photos of your mom on it. While it was scheduled to go live in March - the website is being "implemented" on Feb 1st instead, which will give us one more month to "perfect" it right in front of your horny eyes.

Having that in mind, we would like to encourage you to write to us. Not just a regular email asking "the contact info for that girl on page 49", but write a story and send it to us. Send us an idea, something you would like to see in the magazine. Something new, or something old. This is your chance.

You can contact us at info@xcitementatlanta.com and one of our editors or writers will get back to you depending on the project, or you can send me an email directly at RogiBlasko@XcitementAtlanta.com. After all, I'm sick of getting your mom's e-mails all the time. I'd like to meet you too.
